

35TH ANNIVERSARY

THE Studio
TOUR
HALIBURTON HIGHLANDS

FIRST TWO WEEKENDS OF OCTOBER
october 1-2 & 8-9 | studios open 10-5

2022

Another year gone by with friends and family, another Christmas, another round of Birthdays and other special occasions. We've all endured the past year of the Pandemic by being kind, understanding and supportive of everyone around us regardless of their views.

For all of us on The Studio Tour – Haliburton Highlands, it has allowed us to reflect and take in the beauty of what surrounds us and focus on our art to bring you the most diverse Tour we've ever had with additional Guest artists added. More artists in the same geographical footprint offers you the opportunity to explore even more fine art and craft while navigating the scenic Haliburton Highlands in Autumn. Many will be demonstrating or explaining the process of creating their craft which gives you a deep insight into the minds of these skilled artisans. Visit our studios and buy directly from these creators.

Again this year, we have to take Covid into consideration and should it still be a threat to public safety, we will be implementing safety procedures if recommended by the local Health Unit. If not mandated at the time, please respect the safety protocol wishes of individual studios. We look forward to celebrating the Fall colours and shared appreciation of creativity with all of you.

B Wendy Wood
Landscape Painting and Weaving

Acrylic landscapes and functional weaving. Handwoven placemats, colourful tea towels and cozy scarves are just some of the items Wendy has been creating. When not weaving Wendy hikes around the Haliburton Highlands or camps her way across Canada with camera and sketch book in hand looking for that next inspiration for her paintings. Studio B is located at 1255 Peterson road, just west of the lights in Carnarvon.

C Sophie Creelman
Acrylic Painting

Here you'll find acrylic paintings in varying subject matter. Ranging from detailed cityscapes, to moody abstract landscapes, there is something for anyone and any wall. Inspired by her surroundings, Sophie creates art that incorporates the small details found in our world and uses colour to capture the feeling and mood of a place or memory. A brand new collection awaits! Located directly across from Bethel Church Cemetery.

Brent McGillivray & Maureen Bennett
Times Gone By Studio - Acrylic Painting

Artists Brent McGillivray and Maureen Bennett present viewers with two distinctive experiences with their individual styles. Brent armed with his camera captures details such as the way light filters through a window or the play of shadows on a wall and meticulously transfers them to canvas in a photorealistic style. Maureen envisioned expanding the same concepts of design that she used in stained glass into her own signature style of painting contemporary bold graphic depictions of Canadian landscapes.

F*Gord JonesWhite Pine Studio - Watercolour Painting

Gord is a watercolour artist residing in the Algonquin Highlands. His inspiration is found mainly in the surrounding landscape - scenes the viewer may recognize from a walk in the woods or a view across the lake. Gord loves the transparency of watercolour and wants the viewer to enjoy the luminosity of the medium with a simplicity of washes and strokes.. He is an elected member of The Canadian Society of Painters in Watercolour and The Society of Canadian Artists.

Ceramics

The joy of creating unique ceramic vessels is artfully expressed in the authenticity of Lyn's work. Inspired by diverse textures, Lyn uses a lichen glaze on her contemporary pieces, manifesting a beautiful and natural contrast between clay, arresting hues and light. The ancient art of Raku firing is another conduit in which Lyn has masterfully captured bold colours, enabling them to magnificently emerge from the flames. All visitors are welcome.

35TH ANNIVERSARY

The Studio Tour Haliburton is proud to announce it is celebrating 35 years of Art and Education in the Haliburton Highlands. One of the reasons people enjoy The Studio Tour so much and come back year after year, is they not only see familiar artists, but also many new faces while enjoying the beautiful Fall colours of the Haliburton Highlands.

This year is no exception, making The Studio Tours' 35th anniversary year our largest tour ever with 26 locations and 44 artists. Our Juried artists work in a wide range of media at an exceptional level of expertise. We share our story, educate and provide inspiration and connection with our visitors.

We've welcomed many artists over the past 35 years and are still amazed by the sheer talent this county has displayed. We thank guests and the community for supporting our artists since the Tours inception, and every year after. It wouldn't be possible - or nearly as enjoyable - without you all!

To celebrate our 35th anniversary, we have partnered with Haliburton Highlands Brewery (HNB) to create a specially labelled Studio Tour beer, sold at HNB in the weeks leading up to the Tour.
